“A threefold cord is not easily broken.” Ecclesiastes 4:12

“Weaving a Three-fold Cord” is an exciting gathering of Jesus’ followers, young, old, families, teens, neighbors in the greater Columbus region, as well as those who are seeking Jesus, wishing to know Him more! Our hope and prayer is that this event will bring together those who are in need of the peace, mercy and grace which comes through Jesus Christ, uniting us in a spiritual bond! In a time of great challenge and upheaval in culture and society, followers of Jesus are stronger when standing together on the Word of God. This FREE event, Friday May 31, 7 PM, will include inspirational speaking, moving music and praise and prayers for our nation, region, churches and people!

Keynote speaker will be Tommy Bowden, two-time ACC Coach of the Year at Clemson University and widely recognized motivational speaker. He has dedicated his life to making a difference in others’ lives. In addition to his many accomplishments as a coach, his teams were known not only for their success on the field but also in the classroom, with top graduation success rates and top team Grade Point Averages. In 2006, Tommy received the Fellowship of Christian Athletes Coach of the Year Award. Since retiring in 2008, he has appeared as an expert college football analyst on ESPN TV and radio and has co-hosted two football television shows on FOX Sports and the ACC Football Network. Tommy is the author of the book “Winning Character.” He has been married to his wife for over 40 years, has two children and four grandsons! Tommy is a committed Christian much sought-after speaker, spending much of his time now weaving his experience and faith into messages which inspire, enlighten and challenge!

Sponsored by Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, this event is offered with the support of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the Westerville Area Resource Ministries (WARM). A free-will offering will be received on Friday evening, with ten percent designated for WARM.
